

The Cahill Group is one of the largest multi-disciplinary construction companies in Canada, with operations from Newfoundland to Alberta. We believe in taking care of our people with rewarding career opportunities, competitive compensation packages, and a dynamic working environment.

Contracts Advisor
GJC-CA-11-30

The Contracts Advisor reports directly to the Vice President, Strategy & Development and works closely with Senior Management, the Commercial Manager and Project Managers to identify, analyze and mitigate legal issues and obligations across multiple projects, divisions and subsidiaries. Key responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Maintain ongoing client communication and resolve issues expeditiously
- Liaise with external law firms and consultants
- Develop, negotiate and issue terms and conditions for subcontracts and agreements
- Provide contract management functions across a portfolio of projects
- Conduct detailed reviews of various contractual agreements
- Lead client negotiations on contractual/commercial items
- Assist with contractual/legal documentation requirements
- Assist in corporate contractual activities including partnerships, acquisitions and divestitures
- Proactively manage contractual/commercial risk through provision of commercial/contractual advice

The ideal candidate has a university degree in business, engineering or law or equivalent experience. A minimum of 5 years' experience in a legal/contracts environment is required. Excellent communication skills and a logical approach are also key assets.

If you are interested in joining our growing team, please apply in confidence to employment@cahill.ca, quoting competition GJC-CA-11-30. Cahill is an equal opportunity organization. While we thank all applicants for their interest, only those under consideration will be contacted.

